Why Name Matching Matters ☎ +1-877-394-5034

Matching the name on your ticket with your government-issued ID is crucial:

- Check-in compliance: Airlines verify that the ticket name matches the ID exactly.
- Security screening: TSA may deny boarding if the names don't match.
- International flights: Passport names must match exactly for immigration.
- Avoiding delays or missed flights: Minor discrepancies can create major complications.

JetBlue Policy for Name Mismatches ☎ +1-877-394-5034

JetBlue allows both minor corrections and full name updates, depending on the situation:

- Minor mismatches: Small typos or misspellings may be corrected without fees.
- Major mismatches: Full legal name changes (due to marriage, divorce, or court order) require documentation and may involve fees.
- Timing: Changes should be made before travel to avoid complications at the airport.
- International flights: Names must match your passport exactly; even minor errors may prevent boarding.

☎ +1-877-394-5034 can confirm whether your ticket qualifies for a correction and guide you through the process.

How to Fix Name Mismatches ☎ +1-877-394-5034

Step 1: Identify the Mismatch

- Compare your JetBlue ticket with your ID or passport.
- Determine whether it's a minor typo or a major legal change.

Step 2: Gather Documentation

- Minor errors: Usually, no documentation required.
- Major legal changes: Provide documents such as a marriage certificate, divorce decree, or court order.
- For international flights, your passport must match the ticket exactly.

Step 3: Contact JetBlue ☎ +1-877-394-5034

- Provide your booking reference and the correct legal name.
- JetBlue agents can update your ticket, explain fees (if any), and confirm eligibility.

Step 4: Confirm the Update

- Verify that your ticket reflects the correct name.
- Save the confirmation email for airport check-in.
