ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1889, SUNY Oneonta is a regional, comprehensive university located in central New York State. Part of the network of 64 campuses that make up the State University of New York System, the University enrolls about 6,000 students who pursue bachelor’s or master’s degrees or certificates in one of 60-plus academic programs. Within the student body, 60.4% identify as female and 26.7% are from underrepresented racial or ethnic groups.

Known as an exemplary residential campus that values inclusion, service and sustainability, SUNY Oneonta is a nurturing community where students grow intellectually, thrive socially, and live purposefully. Students enjoy an average class size of 21 students and student to faculty ratios of 16:1. Alongside classes, the campus offers a residential experience that truly engages students in a variety of co-curricular activities.

SUNY Oneonta is regularly recognized as one of the most affordable universities and best values, an acknowledgment of the University’s academic quality and commitment to keeping student debt manageable. Oneonta was also recently ranked at number 11 among the best universities in New York for securing a job after graduation. This particular study ranked 129 four-year universities based on the percentage of alumni who were employed 10 years after graduation. For Oneonta, that number is 93.81%!

MISSION:
We nurture a community where students grow intellectually, thrive socially and live purposefully.

CORE VALUES:
• inclusivity — making sure that everyone feels welcome here;
• service — committing to making a difference in the lives of others; and
• sustainability — not only financial and environmental responsibility, but a force that keeps each of us moving toward our individual calling, whatever that may be.

VISION:
to become the exemplar residential community, providing relevant educational experiences in and outside of the classroom.
Located in Central New York, Oneonta is a city of approximately 14,000 residents that is nestled in the northern foothills of the Catskill Mountains—about a four-hour drive from New York City, Boston, and Philadelphia. Home to two institutions of higher education and several businesses, the town serves as the economic center of a two-county area. Oneonta’s location gives easy access to both natural and urban landscapes. It is centrally located between the cities of Albany and Binghamton, with easy access to the Catskills and the Susquehanna River.

Oneonta is one of the top 20 picturesque small towns in America, according to Microsoft News. The natural beauty of the region is breathtaking year-round. Each season offers outdoor activities such as hiking, biking, boating, swimming, and skiing. For example, the Oneonta Susquehanna Greenway, a cycling and pedestrian trail, follows along the bank of the river and offers a scenic location for both warm and cold weather activities, from rollerblading to snowshoeing. Employees give SUNY Oneonta high marks for work/life balance, management, and culture.
